Soph Class Organizes; Campaign Results Given

Don Miller was elected president in the sophomore elections on Tuesday, September 26. Other winners were Ken Heaton, vice-president; Cathy Gaunt, secretary; Rita Palmer, treasurer; and Bev Dent, Jim Eary, and Becky Klock, executive board.

Jay Staff Welcomes Four New Seniors

Four seniors have been added to the Jay staff since positions were announced last spring.

Phyllis Bayer, assistant news editor, attended Henry Ford High School last year where she also worked on the school paper.

Exchange editor, Jane Herrick, is responsible for sending issues of the Jay to various high schools around the country who in turn send Southfield copies of their papers. Papers come here from as far away as Hawaii.

Grace Rogge, designer of the new nameplate, is the art editor. She will be responsible for doing ad layouts and designs.

Grant Santimore who is the sports editor, will also write sports news for the Southfield Sun.

Cheerleaders Selected At Reserve Tryouts

After two days of practice eight cheerleaders for 1961-62 reserve squad were chosen at the tryouts on Sept. 21. They are Judy Dalrymple, Lorraine Marvz, Janet Rosenau, Diana Sahlin, Sandy Shurmur, Sharon Sloan, Barbara Smith, and Debbie Stanton.

Mrs. Shirley Hoffman, Miss Eleanore Nelson, Mrs. Judy Stec, and Miss Dorothy Ward were the judges.

Thirty-five girls participated in the tryouts. Each girl was required to know two cheers and each had to do the splits, Russian splits, and a cart wheel. The girls were evaluated on their poise, cheering, voice, appearance, stunts, and enthusiasm. Five points were possible in each category

Plans Made for Jay Day Carnival Junior Activity in Second Year

Second-annual Jay Day Carnival, sponsored by the junior class will be held October 7, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Book Nook Open Again

Mr. David Moscow, English teacher, has again taken on the responsibility of the Book Nook. The function of the Book Nook is to provide inexpensive books for students.

Students may purchase pocketbooks in the morning before school starts, or during lunch hours. The Book Nook is located in the Bookstore this year. Students working in the Book Nook are Carol Finley, Jim Kohl, Mike Koski, Barb Kutz, Tom McCLOW, and Nancy Turchetti.

Miss Elaine Nash and Miss Doreen Picard are requiring Animal Farm, and one of Mr. Moscow's tenth grade English classes is using all pocketbooks. He feels this provides a better selection and is more fun for the students.

Last year the Book Nook sold approximately 1800 books. This year about 100 different titles are being offered and they will be received at the rate of 20 to 30 per month.

The books range in price from 35 to 95 cents. The Student Council makes a 20 per cent profit on each book sold. This money goes into the Student Council fund and is used for things such as scholarship funds and dances.

Hi-y, Pep Club Plan Homecoming Events

Diana Gaddis was chosen by the Hi-Y club as their homecoming queen candidate. The club is also organizing various committees for a car wash, Jay Day, and homecoming.

Evert Heliste was chosen as head of the project committee. Mike Koski volunteered to head the booth committee for the carnival. Rod Kaminski is in charge of the homecoming float committee.

Originated by the present senior class last year, this year's juniors hope that Jay Day will continue as a junior tradition.

Five committees were organized for Jay Day; refreshments, clean-up, tickets, tents, publicity.

Any profits will go toward the Prom and other future activities.

The carnival will have about 20 club-sponsored booths, clowns, a door prize, and refreshments sold by the juniors.

Sorops Select Gigi

Exchange student Gisela Koppen has been chosen by the Soroptimists as homecoming queen candidate. The club's contribution to Jay Day will be a spook house.

Vicki Busf, Lynn Carley, Darlene Disner, Diane Exworthy, Karen Haines, Pam Kolopsich, Linda Martin, Carol Nelson, Barb Sahlin, and Betty Starkey comprise the Jay Day booth committee.

Working on the homecoming float are chairman Sydelle Becker, Joyce Compton, Leslie Douglas, Kathy Flower, Bonnie Lutz, Pam Spear, and Renee Turner.

Members discussed the theme of the dance to be presented on November 22. This year the Soroptimists will continue to write to their foster daughter Lefkothea, who lives in Greece.

At the Pep Club meeting on September 20, Mary Bray was chosen to head the Jay Day carnival committee. Norma Giordano is chairman of the homecoming float committee. A dance on November 3 is the next activity to be sponsored by the club.

Pep club has been busy making posters advertising the football games in order to promote school spirit.

CLUB NOTES

Clubs are beginning to meet and plan their activities and projects for the coming year.

To further promote the appreciation of theatrics, the Thespian Society, under Mr. James Shippee, sponsor and Diane Murphy, president, has planned to assist in producing the all-school play.

Besides their plans for the all-school play, the Thespians have many ideas for the remainder of the year. These include making a float for homecoming, seeing Camelot, and hearing a speaker from WXYZ.

Thespian Society is an honorary organization in which membership is possible only to those students who have earned ten points annually through participation in theatrical activities. Diane asks anyone who thinks he may have the ten points to see her regarding membership.

Sue Haynes, senior, was elected president of the Spanish Club Thursday, September 21. Others elected at the first meeting were: Ron Bennett, vice-president; Linda Gott, treasurer; Kathy Hines, secretary; and Mary Brauer, parliamentarian.

All students interested in joining the Spanish Club are invited to attend the next meeting on Thursday, October 12, when new members will be told about the initiation which will be held October 19. A social hour with refreshments will follow the initiation.

Mrs. Ellen Harrington, Spanish teacher and Mrs. Beverly Shippee, Spanish and English teacher, are co-sponsors. Meetings are held on Thursdays after school.

At the Y-Teens meeting on September 20, a homecoming float committee and Jay Day booth committee were chosen. Diane Exworthy, Karen Kent, Barbara Lutz, and Mickey Mantell, chairman, make up the float committee. Diane Bogats, Barbara Bunham, Roberta McClung, Linda McCrire, Sandra Spencer, and Marilla Tiffin compose the booth committee. Fortune telling and a handwriting analysis are the activities of the booth. Diana Sahlin was chosen as homecoming candidate. A pajama party is scheduled for October 27.

Harriers Down Vikings

Jay Harriers are well on their way to a very good season. On Thursday, September 21, they defeated Walled Lake by the score of 23-32. Thursday, September 19, showed the Jays winning over Waterford by an overwhelming score of 19-42.

In beating Walled Lake, the Jays earned the honor of defeating the team which had not lost a conference meet in nine years.

Tuesday, October 3, will find the Jays traveling to Thurston High for the Thurston Invitational, before getting back into conference play again against Waterford on October 5.

Jays Lose Again

Southfield Varsity "eleven" were downed by a very strong Ferndale team, 41-6, last Friday night.

Scoring was opened by Ferndale, midway in the first quarter, with the Jays bouncing back afterwards with a touchdown by Dennis Lamb.

Tonight the Jays journey to Pontiac to play the Huskies who have an impressionable record of one win and no losses and are looking for their first conference win, as the Jays are looking for their first win of the season. This is also the Jays second of three away games; the next to be played at Berkley.

Student Council Plans Homecoming, Assembly

"Pages from the Ages" is the theme for the tenth annual Tournament of Queens for 1961, reports the Student Council. Homecoming activities will include a parade on Lahser on Friday, October 20, the homecoming football game with Farmington, and the announcing of the queen's court at halftime.

The annual homecoming dance "Queens and Quarterbacks," will be presented on October 21.

The Student Council received $156 for the exchange student fund from the quarter dance on September 15. October 11, is the date set for an assembly to honor the foreign exchange student, Gisela Koppen.

Maps to all away varsity football games are being furnished by the Student Council. They may be obtained in the bookstore or in the Student Council office.
